

THE FIJI ISLANDS THE ULTIMATE WEDDING DESTINATION

Come celebrate your dream wedding on one of Fiji's 333 beautiful islands. Experience that romantic feeling in this truly relaxing tropical paradise.

Fiji offers you a huge variety of venues - luxurious hotels on the main islands, secluded boutique resorts, with a choice of magnificent private chapels or a variety of beachfront or rainforest locations.

There is the option to celebrate as a couple or with a group of family and friends: locally based wedding coordinators can ensure that all arrangements are stress free and guarantee a unique and memorable occasion.

Issue date January 2009. All prices and details are subject to change and are indicative only and are subject to confirmation. If you have a resort in mind please email for the latest costings and details. Wedding packages offered in conjunction with hotel accommodation (extra cost).

WHY FIJI IS THE ULTIMATE WEDDING DESTINATION

Pressure free

Fiji provides an idyllic escape from the pressure of organizing the wedding at home. Most resorts have a selection of wedding packages from which to choose.

Have an entire resort to yourself

In Fiji, wedding parties are often able to take over an entire resort for total privacy or just the two of you on a picnic on an exclusive coral atoll.

Accessibility

As Fiji is the hub of the South Pacific and the most popular holiday destination; many reasonable travel packages are available throughout the world.

Frequency of flights

There are frequent flights to and from Fiji with our national airline, Air Pacific as well as Air New Zealand, Korean Air, Pacific Blue and Qantas.

Group travel discounts

Wedding parties frequently qualify for group travel discounts with airlines and resorts.

Exclusive wedding

An opportunity to share this experience with close family and an intimate circle of friends.

A choice of beautiful locations

Fiji's wide choice ranges from sandbanks to tropical rainforest, barefoot to ballroom, glass-sided chapels to traditional churches on any of our 333 islands.

The culture

A living culture with natural hospitality seeped in fascinating tradition, Fiji is a land of song and dance.

Pristine environment

The stunning setting comes without health worries: no dangerous animals, insects and diseases such as a malaria.

Fantastic food

Local specialties combined with international flavours for a great variety of cuisine. Choose from formal dinners in air-conditioned settings to casual meals at beachside venues or even a picnic on the beach. Major resorts offer a choice of restaurants and tourist areas offer many local options.

Fantastic photo opportunities

With heavenly sunsets and stunningly beautiful scenery, Fiji provides an amazing backdrop for wedding photos.

The weather

Fiji enjoys a pleasant, tropical two-season climate. Summer temperature averages from 22 to 33 degrees Celsius and winter averages from 19 to 29 degrees Celsius.

A range of activities

A wide range of activities is available from skydiving to golf, white water rafting to trekking, pampering in one of our many spas to simply relaxing on the beach.

Authentic Fijian style

Fijian warriors, costumed attendants and decorated traditional rafts are available to make the occasion unique. Handcrafted bark cloth with stunning garlands of fibre and tropical flowers are among the many options.

Legal weddings

Weddings in Fiji are recognised as legal worldwide.

A choice of accommodation

A range of accommodation choices to suit everyone's budget from fabulous luxury resorts to more family or budget orientated accommodation.

Value for money

There is a variety of all-inclusive packages with extras to suit your budget.

Friendly English speaking people

Our genuine friendliness and hospitality is world-renowned.

Stress free

Resorts offer the services of a wedding coordinator who will arrange everything including all legal requirements in advance and there is a great flexibility and willingness to tailor make arrangements to match a couple's aspirations.

WEDDING REQUIREMENTS

Overseas visitors intending to get married in Fiji are required by law to obtain and sign a marriage license from the nearest marriage registry prior to the marriage ceremony with an average of 36 hours in advance. Special arrangements can also be organized.

The couple must provide the following personal documents to the Registrar for verification purposes at least two weeks before the wedding:

- Original birth certificates for the bride and groom
- Valid passport
- If applicable, divorce papers
- If previous spouse is deceased, a death certificate
- Certificate of Single Status or Certificate of No Legal Impediment must be produced if:
 - (i) Marriage between a Fiji citizen and a foreign citizen
 - (ii) Marriage by former citizens of Fiji
 - (iii) Marriage between foreign citizens residing in Fiji
- Marriage applicants with visitors' visas or bona fide tourists to Fiji from Australia, New Zealand, USA, Canada, UK, and EEC countries are exempted from the above requirement. Different rules apply for some other countries.
- Marriage applicants from Japan must produce the Koseki-Shouhon to certify their personal details.
- Written parental consent is required if either party is under 21 years of age
- Two witnesses who are 21 years of age and over must be present

WEDDING FACILITIES

Wedding facilities in Fiji range from spectacular tropically inspired wedding chapels, traditional thatched wedding buress, beautiful local churches, specially adapted and decorated boats and even underwater settings!

Wedding chapels are located:

- Villa Del Cowrie
- Musket Cove Resort
- Shangri-La's Fijian Resort
- Sofitel Beach and Spa Resort
- Treasure Island Resort
- Mana Island Resort
- Outrigger on the Lagoon Fiji
- Sheraton Fiji Resort
- Tokoriki Island Resort
- Amunuca Island Resort

And there are churches, chapels and temples of all denominations in villages, towns and cities.
